Health Warranty

Oopsie Doodles of NC cares for your dog from birth to the homecoming date. Your dog is believed to be in good health and is sold in good faith. Your dog has received a clean bill of health from our local veterinarian prior to homecoming. The Buyer agrees to have puppy inspected by a practicing veterinarian within 3 working days of contract to ensure the two year health guarantee. Based on veterinarian medical documentation of genetic issues, Oopsie Doodles may cover the cost of medical expenses up to the cost of your purchase or provide a replacement dog. If the buyer declines health warranty or does not submit documentation of first veterinarian visit occurrence within 3 working days of scheduled pickup date, then a full refund will not be given.

Care and Maintenance

The Buyer agrees to maintain your dog's health by providing routine and preventative health care including: vaccinations, parasite prevention, medications as needed. The Buyer agrees to provide a quality diet with a veterinarian recommended food brand. The health warranty will be invalidated if the dog is allowed to become overweight. Breeder cannot guarantee against intestinal parasites, although all measures are taken for prevention (wormer given every 2 weeks). The health warranty does not cover viral illnesses, parasites, infections, hernias, improper bites, giardia, coccidiosis or kennel cough. Additionally, it does not cover illnesses due to the ingestion of foreign objects, food, chemicals, stress related conditions or behavioral issues. All veterinarian records must be submitted to Oopsie Doodles of NC if the health warranty is called into question.

Rehoming Agreement

If for any reason (other than genetic issues) the Buyer determines they cannot keep their dog, the Buyer agrees to contact Oopsie Doodles of NC to make arrangements to return the dog. The Buyer agrees that the dog shall not be surrendered to a shelter or animal rescue. The owner agrees to terminate rights to the dog; no money will be refunded; and the dog will be matched to a suitable home at Oopsie Doodle of NC's discretion.
